Breakfast (weetbix, rice bubbles, baby cereal, and/or sandwiches and fresh fruit) will be offered to children upon arrival (up until 7.45am).

A late snack consisting of; untouched left over afternoon tea, rice crackers, rice cakes, water crackers, fruit or wholemeal sandwiches will be offered to children at approximately 5pm.

From time to time our menu may change either due to circumstances out of our control, or because of an opportunity which is too good to miss, i.e. an offer of Baby Chinos at the café or a cooking experience relating to one of our projects, when this occurs the menu change will be written on the 'modifications to our menu' sign, displayed in the foyer.

The food and beverages chosen take into account dietary requirements of individual children and we strive to meet the individual needs of all children, therefore foods provided may vary for individual children based on their needs, allergies and intolerances, cultural preferences, foods which vary for an individual child will be written on the day sheet in the room.

Sandwiches consist of preservative free wholemeal bread with ¾ of the fillings being one or more of the following – ham, cheese, grated carrot or homemade hommus or tzatziki. 'Sometimes' spreads (jam, honey, vegemite or cheese spread will be offered no more than once per week – we will aim to not be offered at all).

Fruit offered may consist of one or more of the following depending on the season: rockmelon, watermelon, pear, apple, banana, pineapple, honey dew melon, orange, kiwi fruit, mandarin, grapes, peaches, nectarines. Each day a minimum of 3 types of fruit is offered or a minimum of 5 types per week.

Veggie or Vegetable sticks may consist of celery, cucumber, capsicum and carrot. Mashed vegetables may consist of: potato, sweet potato, pumpkin, carrot, cauliflower, peas and corn, and broccoli. Children too young to have mashed vegetables will be given pureed vegetables, to be selected in conjunction with the infant's family. Water is offered to drink at all meal times and readily accessible at the children's level throughout the day.

Infants under six months who are not exclusively breastfed and all infants six to 12 months are served cooled boiled drinking water and children over 12 months have tap water. Full Cream milk offered to all children (unless allergy prevents- if so we offer rice milk).
